A tax expenditure arises to the extent that: (i) the deduction is taken by the investor earlier than it would have been taken by the corporation (indeed, in many cases, the corporation may never have been able to use the deduction), or (ii) where the investor is an individual, his or her tax rate is higher than the corporate tax rate.

Female patients who may be able to become pregnant are required to have regular and frequent medically supervised pregnancy tests during treatment to ensure that they are not pregnant prior to starting treatment and have not become pregnant while taking thalidomide.

It isn’t just climate change and habitat destruction of course, there are other factors contributing to the rapid decline in species’ populations such as hunting for meat, fur and the pet trade, plus the infuriating situation of animal parts acquired for “medicine’

My mum wasn’t best pleased either as I was arriving home by taxi the worse for alcohol at least a couple of times a week and wasn’t showing any signs of working on my marriage, but I was enjoying myself and all the attention, and although I had a few offers from other men while I was out, I always turned them down, despite my friends encouraging me to “have a bit of fun”
